

ANNE K. KENNEDY
INVESTMENT CONSULTANT
anne.kennedy@captrustadv.com

Anne Kennedy has more than twenty-one years of experience serving a broad institutional client base in investment management services. Prior to joining CapTrust in 2010, Anne served as Managing Director, Institutional Investment Services at Munder Capital Management, a boutique investment management firm in Birmingham, Michigan.

In 1991, Anne began her employment at Munder Capital as part of the fixed income portfolio management team. As a portfolio manager within this team, and later a senior portfolio manager, she was responsible for managing institutional client bond portfolios. In 2000, Anne was promoted to Managing Director, Institutional Investment Services, where she was responsible for overseeing the institutional marketing and client services functions. In addition to broad institutional duties, Anne specialized in Captive Insurance Asset Management.

Anne's academic qualifications include a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of Detroit and a Master in Business Administration from the University of Chicago.
